

2015 SECIM Fall Symposium: Advances in Multi-omics

Tuesday, October 20, 2015

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| 8:30 – 9:00am | Registration & Breakfast |
| 9:00 – 9:15am | Welcome Remarks |
| | "Mass Spectrometric Innovations for Metabolomics" |
| | Richard A. Yost, Ph.D. |
| 9:15 – 10:00am | Director, Southeast Center for Integrated Metabolomics Crow Professor of Chemistry University of Florida |
| 10:00 – 10:15am | Break |
| | "Translating Global Metabolomic Profiling by LC-HRMS to a Clinical Diagnostic Assay" |
| | Timothy J. Garrett, Ph.D. |
| 10:15 – 11:00am | Mass Spectrometry Core Director, Southeast Center for Integrated Metabolomics Assistant Professor of Pathology, Immunology, and Laboratory Medicine University of Florida |
| | "Targeting the Untargeted: Structural Mass Spectrometry for the Analysis of Complex Samples in Systems, Synthetic, and Chemical Biology" |
| 11:00 – 11:50am | John A. McLean, Ph.D. Stevenson Professor of Chemistry Vanderbilt University |
| 11:50 – 12:00pm | Concluding Remarks |
| 12:00pm | Lunch |

The 2015 SECIM Fall Symposium is sponsored by:

Agilent Technologies